General Membership Meeting

Happy New Year! It seems like it's been a while since we've seen each other. With three great ski trips in the barrel at the time of this writing, the year seems to be flying by already. There is a great deal of comfort seeing the faces of old friends, reliving the awesome ski adventures of the past; the familiarity and camaraderie of sharing the experiences at some of the best ski resorts in the country. With the birth of a new year, we turn our eye to meeting new friends as well, further enriching our experiences and perspectives. The program for the February meeting is very serendipitous as we will be inviting a new friend to speak to the group about a new ski resort in, of all places, Ely, Nevada. I know... I raised my eyebrow too when I heard about it. But after speaking with Gary (the very ambitious developer), and listening to his vision of what could be, we thought we'd at least hear him out. After all, if you want to build a ski resort, go to the experts who ski them. Right? Come out and show your support, or at least satisfy that curiosity. Hope to see you there.

Director's Column

— ELECTIONS ARE COMING — Elections are Coming

The election of new officers and board members should be of vital interest to all ski club members. Your board makes decisions on the best direction for the club, present and future, based -in large part- on input from the members.

As I stated in last months newsletter, we are losing some valuable members and are looking for replacements. To date, I have had several people volunteer to be new members. That will make the transition much easier. New board members with new ideas will help to keep the club evolving.

The elections will be held at the March 19th General Membership meeting. Those present will be able to nominate members for election at that time. Keep in mind that even current board members are subject to reelection every year. Please plan to attend this important meeting.

The current members volunteering for another year are:

Mark McNeil – President
Jim Boyd – Vice President & Newsletter Editor
Michael Barrett – Treasurer
Patsy McKenna – Membership
John Mason – Hospitality
Valerie Ward – Programs
Phyllis Silvaggio – Socials
Dottie White – Assistant Hospitality
Michael O'Connor – Club Representative to Far West

Members expressing interest in being board members for the coming year:

Kay Dee Puffer
Rosette Mare
Ron Williams
Terry Ledbetter
Pete Petersen

Valuable members who are not returning:

Kathy Arrington
Martha Gregory
Pat Park
Edith Lee

If you are interested in serving on the board in any capacity, contact any board member.

Mark McNeil- President

Newsletter Policy Change: By vote of the LVSSC BOD, effective with the September 2007 issue, the LVSSC newsletter will no longer be mailed to any members. The BOD noted that since the newsletter is available on the Website and can be printed out from the website by anyone who desires a print copy, the costs associated with printing and mailing the copies to those few members who have requested a print copy was no longer a cost effective use of members' dues money.

Attention all Las Vegas Ski & Sports Club Hikers

Willow Springs Loop Trail Red Rock Canyon

(trail & hike rated easy)

When: Saturday, February 16, 2008

When/Where to Meet: 8:00 am - Starbucks on the corner of Town Center and Charleston Blvd. in Summerlin.

What to Bring: Plenty of water, camera, hiking boots; comfortable hiking clothes & hat.

After the Hike: For those that want to, we will stop and have a mid-day snack and beverage when we get back in the Valley.

Contact: Valerie Ward at 326-5167 or ward828@yahoo.com - or - Dianna Harris at 604-8824 or happypetcare@cox.net

Overview: (thanks to birdandhike.com)

This nice, 1.1-mile loop trail runs down one side of Red Rocks Wash and back up the other. The trail can be started from the Willow Springs or Lost Creek parking areas, which are at opposite ends of the loop. The scenery is great, the desert vegetation is relatively lush (well, for the desert anyways), there are two springs with riparian vegetation, there are interesting Native American sites along the way, and there is always the chance of seeing bighorn sheep up in the cliffs. (saw quite a few this time last year).

Turtlehead Peak Red Rock Canyon

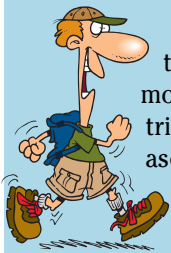

(moderately strenuous)

When: Saturday, February 9, 2008

Where: Turtlehead Peak, Red Rock Canyon
Red Rock's lower parking lot
(next to the entrance gate)

Time: 8:00 am

Contact: Mike O'Connor at 396-2125 for additional information.

It's that time of the year once again to conquer La Tortuga. This moderately strenuous five-mile round-tripper boasts 2000 feet of vertical ascent and a breathtaking view of the Las Vegas Valley.

NO LATER THAN FEB. 20, 2008!

Salt Lake City, December 2007

The first early outing of the year usually means skiing dirt and rocks but not so this year— we skied and rode on serious new powder each morning at Brighton and Solitude. The first runs on Friday had that cold white stuff above the knees and on Saturday at Solitude's steeper runs, powder was well above the waist. Big smiles and burnt quads were on each happy body. Those that love corduroy didn't have groomers this trip. The twenty-two on the trip first met up at the Bohemian Brewery on Thursday night and topped off the weekend's group functions at the Brazilian eatery, The Rodisio Grill in Trolley Square.

The weekend began with a "bang" and a "pop." Gary George totaled his new Subaru Forester on I15 with Terry Ledbetter and Cristina George being the fortunate other survivors who could not believe they came out of that serious danger in the best possible way. — deployed airbags rule. Everybody's buddy, Kurt Luthy hosted a wine party each night in Room 223, What did the cleanup people think of three wine bottles in the room trash each morning? Riders Karen Bernard, Jill Merk and Dave Berry bombed the steeps and deep at Solitude with Kurt Luthy, Gary George, and Terry Ledbetter following on skis that tended to submarine in the deep and wet powder. Dennis Penczek, face planted and butt up in deep powder, had a skier neatly jump over his prone body. Mike Henderson, Robert Melody, Rich Brescia, Charley Steele, Phil Booker, Pete Peterson and Steve Kaiser, after a physical morning at Solitude, went back up after lunch to find the conditions better for their liking as the snow had began to be beat down. Kay Dee and Max Puffer, Kathy Arrington and Jim Boyd, Joe Lanahan, Patsy McKenna, Cristina George and Lin Henderson skied hard on Friday and smartly enough, took Saturday off to shop and party in downtown. What a great weekend. Thanks to Gary George for leading a great trip.

Trip Talk....

Kathy Arrington, Trip Director

Our first trip of the year was December 6th to Salt Lake City, Utah. The trip started out on a bad note with Gary George, Trip Leader, having an automobile accident on the way in. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt. Friday was great skiing. Saturday was challenging with a little too much powder for some of us. The group dinner was fabulous and everyone had a great time. Thanks to Gary for another really fun time!

The next trip was January 10th to Lake Tahoe/North Shore. We skied Squaw Valley, Northstar and Alpine ski resorts. The snow was great, we had a lot of laughs and everyone arrived home in one piece (even though there were a few small incidents along the way)! This was Barry Keeney's first time to run a trip for the club and he did a super job! Thanks Barry for all your work and we are looking forward to your trips for next year.

The Sun Valley trip will be in progress when this newsletter comes out. I am sure they are having a fabulous trip.

The Ogden trip is scheduled for February 15 – 18th. This is a new trip for the Club this year and is also an inexpensive drive trip (car pooling). We will be skiing Snow Basin and Powder Mountain. There are still spots available—call Jim Boyd for availability.

The Aspen/Snowmass trip scheduled for March 1st – 6th still has a few spots available. The club has not had a trip to Aspen in several years, so we are really excited about this trip. Call Pat Park or Gary W for more information.

Couer d'Alene Resort, Idaho (Schweitzer and Silver Mountain ski resorts) is scheduled for March 12th – 16th. This is also a new trip for the Club. Unfortunately the Trip Leader, Mark McNeil, will not be able to make the trip due to work commitments, so call his assistant and now Trip Leader, Patsy McKenna, for availability.

The annual bus trip to Brainhead has been finalized and the trip leader, John Mason has a great trip March 28th-30th for only $249. Look for the flyer in this newsletter and contact John ASAP to reserve your spot on this low cost, fun bus trip.

Remember—you have to be a club member to go on these trips. If you have not paid your membership dues for the current season, please pay Patsy soon to keep your spot on these great trips.

WHERE HAVE ALL THE HIKERS GONE?

Lake Mead Jan Hike Report

It was a perfect January morning—cloudless sky, a wisp of a breeze and 45°. Sunny and Cher all around. Great day for a hike. Should get at least 20 people, maybe more, eh? Alas, twas not to be.

A mere half-dozen intrepid souls showed for the rendezvous at Lake Mead. With no hike leader (everyone out of town), no sense of direction, and not a clue as to where we were going, off we went in the direction of the water.

Ninety minutes later we were basking in a warm sun atop Hoover Dam. The 3.4-mile scenic trail is now complete, running through a series of five tunnels, with breathtaking panoramas of the lake throughout. But the day's highlight was yet to come.

Following the uphill trek back to the cars, we drove into downtown Boulder City in search of a lunch spot. And there it was, beckoning us to come in—Milo's Cellar. We obeyed our instincts, walked inside and found a table.

We started off with the soup du jour, a chicken chile verde con queso that was absolutely to-die-for. Followed that up with an array of delectable gourmet sandwiches and washed it all down with an aromatic Malbec from Argentina.

Sunshine, Lake Mead, good friends, and good wine. Does it get any better?

Michael O'Connor

Tahoe Trip

The weekend of January 10 - 13 was a terrific time for 16 club members who enjoyed the trip to North Lake Tahoe. I should say, "Braved the trip" since our plane to Reno had to do a "Fly By" while approaching the runway at Reno International, due to wind sheer (that was scary!)

The accumulation of about 9' of snow over the prior 2 weeks made the ski conditions fabulous. And all 3 days were blessed with sun and great temperatures. We skied Squaw Valley, Alpine Meadows, and Northstar at Lake Tahoe, putting in more runs and vertical feet than we could keep track of.

The nightlife was fun as well, as we enjoyed vino around the Hot Tub looking out over the lake, and Pete and Peters for a few Apre Ski snacks and barley pops. There was certainly no shortage of laughter.

Join us next year and share in the FUN
