The Big 4-0
It started with two guys in a Las Vegas pub in 1973:
A day hike to the highest peak in southern Nevada. It’s still going in 2012. So Mark your hiking calendar for the annual June trek:

Michael O’s 40th Annual Assault on
Mt. Charleston. This all-day, strenuous affair will log 17+ miles and just under a mile of vertical ascent.
Saturday, June 16, 0600 departure
Mickey D’s at US 95 & Durango (east side).

Bicycle Ride
It’s the perfect remedy to relieve those achy Mt. Charleston quads — a two to three-hour bike ride around the western Las Vegas valley.

Sunday, June 17, 0730 departure
Mickey D’s at Centennial Center Blvd.
& Grand Montecito
(Just west of Centennial Toyota)

Greetings Fellow Members

With summer fast approaching, it is time to think about summer traveling and outdoor activities. The first item on your list to get into shape is yourself. You must make a commitment to start exercising now before that big hike or backpack trip.

Summer also means high temperatures. Do you know the difference between heat stress and heat exhaustion? Do you know how to treat a friend or loved one who suddenly feels faint being outside? The internet is a great place to find information to help in an emergency. You may just save a life.

Another important item to get in shape for summer is your vehicle. People have died after getting stranded when their vehicle broke down in an isolated location. If you are not mechanically inclined like I am, take your car/truck and spend $50 to $100 to have an expert do a thorough exam. If you choose to do it yourself, be sure to check the following:

- Tires, including the spare
- Cooling system
- All other fluid levels including transmission, transaxle or rear differential, windshield washer fluid, power steering, and brakes.

Speaking of brakes, if they make a squeaking or grinding noise when stopping, have them checked out as soon as possible. Brakes can be a life saver and could avoid a major, costly repair later.
A Big LVSSC Thank You to our last month’s TGIF host, Coconuts and Siena Golf Club for letting us use their fabulous facilities and for treating us so well while we were there.

Join us at the cool & quiet, Spring Mountain Ranch in Red Rock Canyon for the musical comedy, “Crazy for You.”

This production is based on the music of George and Ira Gershwin and set in the town of Deadrock, Nevada during the 1930s. A young banker sent to Deadrock to foreclose on a theatre, falls in love with a local girl, assumes the identity of a New York producer and puts a show together to try to save the theatre.

Mal Singer will be our host and will reserve our own section, center stage, with chairs. You may bring your own coolers with food and beverages or you can purchase snacks and beverages at the snack bar.

More information is available at the web site, supersummertheatre.org or you may call 702-594-7529.
