Super Summer Theater

I wanted to make the financial transaction easier, so I rounded the price to $14.00 per person, which includes a handling charge from the vendor. Please note that the gates open at 5:00 PM and the show starts earlier at 7:05 PM, Friday, 19 September 2014 at Spring Mountain Ranch State Park.

Please RSVP to Michael Barrett by Friday, 12 September 2014, at 702 645 5826, or by e-mail to mbduster01@aol.com or to Barbara Gottlieb at 702-762-7604, or by e-mail at wphs67@msn.com.

Tickets can be purchased from the club at our TGIF on 12 September, from Prestige Travel or on-line through ShowTix4U.com. Closer to the date of the event, I will provide an e-mail announcement.

The play, "Arsenic and Old Lace" is a comedy, written in 1939 by Joseph Kesselring and his most successful and memorable.

Drama critic Mortimer Brewster is engaged to the lovely Elaine Harper, but will she fit in with his 'unusual' family? Abby and Martha Brewster are known throughout Brooklyn for their many acts of kindness and charity. But Mortimer has just learned that his charming spinster aunts have taken to relieving the loneliness of old men by inviting them in for a nice glass of home-made elderberry wine laced with arsenic, strychnine, and "just a pinch" of cyanide! What else can go wrong? Their brother believes that he's Teddy Roosevelt and another, long-lost uncle also enters picture to threaten Mortimer's happiness.

Mal Singer will be our host and will reserve our own section, near center stage, with chairs. You may bring your own coolers with food and beverages or you can purchase snacks and beverages at the snack bar.

More information is available at the web site, <http://supersummertheatre.org/2014-season/> or you may call 702-594-7529.

Director's Column

I was thinking of something my old physics pal, Zac Newton, used to say, when he wasn't babbling about gravity and apples falling on his head, which in its briefest form is, "A body in motion, stays in motion...a body at rest, stays at rest." It is that time of year to start preparing for the coming snow-sports season. That means inventory and maintenance of your snow-sports equipment, including that most important piece of equipment—your body.

Coming up at our next General Membership Meeting on Friday, 26 September 2014, we will have a special guest speaker to get you in the snow-sports mood. Melissa Balice, a ski instructor since 1998 currently teaching at Taos Ski Valley, NM and a member of the club. Melissa will give a short presentation and demonstration, covering physical conditioning, equipment and techniques which will enable our members to participate in and enjoy skiing and snowboarding for many years to come.

If you haven't checked out the senior executive membership at the City of Las Vegas Recreation Centers, now is your chance. They are still offering the two dollar, annual fee for use of all of the facilities, there are some restrictions, but I have not been inconvenienced by them.

I have included a link to the City of Las Vegas, Recreation Center newsletter, which provides detailed information about the different facility locations and amenities at <https://lasvegasnevada.gov/files/BeyondTheNeon.pdf>. There are similar exercise opportunities available at Clark County, North Las Vegas and Henderson facilities, near you, so check them out.

Let it Snow, Let it Snow, Let it Snow

Before you know it, we will be able to warm up for ski season at our new and improved local resort on Mt Charleston.

Las Vegas Ski & Snowboard Resort is still on schedule with its $35 million expansion program. The 300-acre mountain is getting a new chairlift, base area realignment and a formal tubing area.

The new quad chairlift replaces existing Chair 2, a two-seater that has been hauling skiers and snowboarders into the intermediate and advanced terrain of Lower West Bowl for 32 years. Crews also will relocate the base terminals for both Chair 2 and Chair 1 in hopes of easing congestion because both loading zones were close together.

The ultimate plan is to expand to 500 acres and 10 lifts during a decade of expansion, backed by Powder Corp., the resort's operator and co-owner.

Phase Two includes two additional lifts that will increase the ski area's vertical drop to 1,655 feet to 10,235-foot elevation on 11,918-foot Mt. Charleston. Those two new lifts, rising 950 and 1,015 vertical feet, respectively, will serve primarily advanced and expert terrain on 11 new runs on the mountain's upper flanks.

We will notify members of planned day trips so we can ski together!

Leg Exercises

Hello members. We are lucky to be enjoying a mild summer in Las Vegas, albeit with a bit too much humidity for my aching bones. As we head into fall, I have toughened up on my leg exercises to get ready for ski season. I do my exercises in a pool where I can mitigate the pain of arthritis and bad knees. I want to share with you three simple exercises you can do right in your home. You need a high backed chair for the first two exercises.

Knee Curl (Kick your own backside)

Step 1

Stand facing the back of the chair. Place your hands on the chair for balance. Position your feet hip-distance apart.

Step 2

Shift your weight onto your left leg. Bend your left knee slightly. Exhale, bend your right knee and raise your right foot toward your butt. Keep your right foot lifted for one second.

Step 3

Inhale and slowly lower your right leg to the starting position. Complete 10 to 15 knee curls on your right leg. Complete 10 to 15 curls on your left leg.

Knee Straightening (you can also do this lying down on the floor or in your bed)

Step 1

Sit on the chair. Slide your backside to the back of the chair until your back is supported. Rest your toes and the balls of your feet on the floor. Position a rolled up towel on the front edge of the chair underneath your legs if needed for support.

Step 2

Exhale, flex your right foot by pulling your toes toward your shin and straighten your right leg. Aim to straighten your leg until it is parallel with the floor, but keep a slight bend in your knee. Keep your leg straight for one second.

Step 3

Inhale, bend your right knee and set your foot on the floor. Complete 10 to 15 knee extensions on your right leg, then complete the same number on your left leg.

Chair Stand (sit to stand)

Step 1

Sit near the front edge of the chair. Place your feet on the floor, shoulder-distance apart. Lean slightly backward and cross your arms over your chest.

Step 2

Exhale, sit upright and extend your arms to the front parallel with the floor. Shift the weight into your heels and slowly stand.

Step 3

Inhale, bend your knees and slowly sit down. Cross your arms and lean backward in preparation for the next chair stand. Complete 10 to 15 stands. Rest for one minute and complete a second set.

This is a slow start, leading up to more difficult exercises for your legs, and in particular, your knees. So start getting in shape for ski season! It will be here before you know it!

And remember, if you haven't already done so, sign up for the Golf Outing, Halloween Party, Ogden and Mammoth trips!

Best to all,
Diane Askwyth, President

We believe in giving you the most for your money that is why our trip this year will be the best. You wonder how we can we do this; it is because Patsy's has lead the Ogden trip for several years. She has a lot of local contacts and they give her the best prices. If you tried to book this yourself it would cost you hundreds of dollars more. But this is not a bare bones trip just ask the satisfied people who have traveled to Ogden with us. I have been on this trip five times and I am so excited to make it six. There is such great skiing and other activities in Ogden that you will never be bored.

Everyone knows that the BUS ride is always fun. We will have plenty beverages & munchies, and we will be in Ogden before you know it. When we arrive the fun continues at the Welcome party that Snow Basin & Powder Mountains are having for us. Now about the Lodging we will be staying at Quality Suites, which is very comfortable and we can't forget the free buffet breakfast. Of course they have an indoor hot tub and pool so you can relieve the sore muscles from your day's adventures.

This is the Best Trip You will Take this Year!!!
